

IMPORTANT NOTICE
Changes to Employment Services
in Middletown

Effective September 2, 2011

Employment services for job seekers will no longer be available at CTWorks, 645 South Main St. in Middletown. The Department of Labor and the Russell Library will offer employment services (with no eligibility requirements) to the general public at:

Russell Library
123 Broad Street
Middletown
Phone: (860) 347-2520
<http://Russelllibrary.org>

- Job readiness workshops
- Computer training
- Resume review
- Interview coaching
- Computers for job searching

Job readiness workshops, free job search-related supplies and the use of computers to assist in your job search efforts are available at all other CTWorks, including our three other offices in New Haven, Meriden and Hamden. To learn more about these services, simply sign up for a One Stop Services Orientation at the CTWorks office most convenient for you.